San Michele Collection (Leaves and Berries)

These handcrafted pieces are solid lead-free pewter. Each piece is polished to a high luster to bring out the natural beauty of the metal and the detailed design. These leaves and berries design is ideal for use throughout the home.

Inspired by old-world craftsmanship, each of our lead-free pewter, Vicenza designed products are handcrafted in the U.S.A by our master craftsmen. You will notice subtle differences in each piece, which is the result of each step of the production process being performed by hand using centuries-old techniques.
